

Senior Project - Interim Presentation Evaluation

This survey assesses the work of each team along the presentation, product, and process dimensions as presented at the Interim Presentation. This will be used by instructors as part of their assessment of each team's progress to date and each individual's contribution to the team. Each presentation does not need to cover every last point in this evaluation. Some aspects may be more important for one project than another. The teams have flexibility in deciding where to place the emphasis.
